

APPLY NOW!

EDITORIAL & CONTENT INTERNSHIP

POSITION SUMMARY

This internship is best suited for individuals with a media or communications background or is interested in learning about human rights. Under supervision of the Education and Communications Associate (ECA), your responsibilities will range from digital content development, writing, editing, and activities related to improving the management and operations of the HRCBlog.

You'll assist in monitoring and updating blog engagement and performance reports. Your work will help guide the creation of practical HRE content that will inform and equip HRC's audience about HRE and the civil resistance framework. You'll provide operational and administrative support in core areas that will give you opportunities for skills development.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assist in regular analytics reporting by maintaining the Blog Engagement Report, including user and reach data for HRCBlog
- Copy edit and proofread blog posts; keep core operational documents updated
- Create and/or edit graphics or other dynamic online content for use on HRC's online platforms or other presentations
- Collaborate and coordinate with HRC's Community Engagement team to publish and promote content
- Identify and attend relevant events on behalf of HRC to live tweet and create publishable content
- Participate in HRC's ongoing operations and weekly team meetings
- Provide other assistance to support HRC's mission and activities, as needed
- A minimum time commitment of 6 months is required with the opportunity to extend

QUALIFICATIONS

- Strong academic or professional interest in human rights, human rights education and/or nonviolent action and grassroots organizing
- Excellent written communication, time management, and organizational skills; independent driven
- Ability to work remotely and comfortable working in a networked organization
- Familiarity with Wordpress and Mailchimp required
- English proficiency required, additional language ability preferred
- Editing, copywriting, curriculum development and/or blog maintenance experience preferred

TO APPLY

To apply, please complete this application form including questions on your background and experience, as well as your CV for upload. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

HRC's commitment to diversity and inclusion starts with the perspectives and experiences of our team. We strongly encourage applicants from underrepresented communities to apply.

ABOUT US

KNOWLEDGE FOR ACTION

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to increase access to the human rights legal framework through knowledge and resource-sharing that can be leveraged by nonviolent movements and human rights defenders around the world.

We are a registered nonprofit, tax-exempt 501(c)3 organization based in Washington, D.C.

OUR WORK

Our team conducts thoughtful research to build an extensive knowledge-sharing platform on human rights organizations, nonviolent action and legal resources that strengthen civil society involvement in the promotion and protection of human rights.

We promote the understanding of relevant legal frameworks and civil resistance through technical support, training, the curation of practical resources, and other creative projects.

Our emphasis on technical and strategic knowledge ensures our online library features adequate tools to connect the fields of human rights and civic driven change.

OUR PURPOSE

Knowledge is power: Education is the most powerful deterrent against human rights violations. Knowing how to claim and defend your rights creates opportunities and inspires people to mobilize effectively to demand change and hold human rights actors and institutions accountable. We are inspired by human rights advocates who work to provide better access to resources essential to the successful pursuit of their causes.

We are all agents of change.